Collect

First Reading

Isaiah 50:5-9a

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

I will walk be - fore the Lord, in the land of the liv - ing.

I love the LORD, for he has heard my voice, my appeal; for he has turned his ear to me whenever I call. R.

How gracious is the LORD, and just; our God has compassion. The LORD protects the simple; I was brought low, and he saved me. R.

They surrounded me, the snares of death; the anguish of the grave has found me; anguish and sorrow I found. I called on the name of the LORD: "Deliver my soul, O LORD!" R.

He has kept my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling. I will walk in the presence of the LORD in the land of the living. R.

Homily

Reverend Monsignor Thomas M. Ginty
Rector of the Cathedral

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
